Child Sponsorship Program ($40 per month)

The child receives clothing, school shoes, medical and dental checkups, Christmas and birthday gifts, and a monthly food package for his/her family. Every family is positively impacted. A more balanced diet help eliminate malnutrition, improves one's ability to learn, as well as many other health benefits. Our Guatemalan Health Care Workers have reported an improvement in the health of the children since Loving Arms has instituted this Program.

Scholarship ($50/mo. or a one-time donation to the Program or Sponsor a Specific Child)

The Scholarship Program provides opportunities for impoverished teens/youth to achieve a higher level of education. Students in this Program are able to attend a private school, High School or College. Your donation provides the student with their registration fees, monthly school fees, project fees, uniforms, books and transportation, where available.

To make a donation now click on the Donate Today image below:

Name: ANA CRISTINA SUY SOL
Birthdate: 1999
City: Parramos

She is 16 years old. Her greatest dream is to be able to study and become a professional. She wants to work so that finally her mother will be able to stay home and look after her siblings.

The Sol Muxin family is one of the neediest families in our program since the mother is a widow with 6 children. Their lives are hard but through this program things have been improving.

Last year she studied, but her mother found it difficult sometimes to buy the material she needed so she couldn't present the projects. This year she made a big effort and she got good grades in all the units.

For this year, her approximate costs would be $1700.00 which includes her monthly fees, registration, supplies, transportation, uniform and project money.

CARMEN SANJAY BERNARDINO

Carmen is 40 years old. Her greatest dream has been to study, and in 2011 she was part of our Literacy program where she got her 6th grade certificate. Carmen wishes to continue her education and asked Loving Arms to give her the opportunity to continue her studies. This year she will be finish her junior high school.

Carmen's dream is to continue studying and she is 10thgrade of the secretarial program. Carmen goes to school all day Sunday but he also needs to look after her 7 children.

Carmen is an admirable woman; she is so eager to learn and thus be able to provide a better life for her children.

For this year, her approximate costs would be $1,700.00 which includes her monthly fees, registration, supplies, transportation, uniform and project money.
